Affairs of Arlington Bank to be Wound Up by Frank Downey, Trustee.

Deficit of $6451.06 Shown on Books, but it Will be More Than Covered.

Seventy-eight of the 150 depositors of the Arlington bank attended the meeting held at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the Red Men's hall for the purpose of hearing the report of the committee appointed to examine the books of the bank. Rev. Walter Smith was chosen to preside.

The auditing committee, consisting of Rev. Proctor, Eli Collins and Frank Downey, submitted a report which showed that there was a deficit of $6451.06. This deficit is said to be due to heavy expenses incurred in running the bank, such as rentals, printing, interest on notes and other expenses resulting from the attempt to keep the bank on its feet just prior to its failure. The auditing committee asserts that it has in its possession notes against Messrs. Jones and Goodrich and indorsed by relatives which when they are realized upon will amount practically to $5000 or $5500 more than the amount of the deficit.

It is understood that this deficit represents the actual shortage and that the notes referred to are those furnished by Messrs. Goodrich and Jones since the failure of the bank for the purpose of adjusting the difference. The report among other things says:

"We desire to express our appreciation for the open and unflinching and courteous assistance given us in our task by Messrs. Goodrich and Jones.

"We have been making satisfactory progress and have necessarily been delayed in ascertaining some facts, but we can say, based upon the books and conditions as we find them, that every liability will be met in full, dollar for dollar.

The assets and liabilities as we find them are:

The two notes which have been arranged for in order to cover the shortage are not entered upon the report as assets of the bank for the reason that one of them has, owing to an error in filling it out, not yet been entirely secured. Each of these notes amounts to $3500, and one of them is against Mr. Goodrich and the other against Mr. Jones.

Steps have been taken to organize a new private bank to be incorporated under the new law within a week, and will buy the fixtures of the old bank at the value given in the report. The new bankers hope to open for business in a week. Frank Downey will be president of the new bank. Frank Downey was elected trustee of the old bank and he will wind up its affairs by paying the creditors dollar for dollar. He is under $15,000 bond.

The auditing committee, together with Messrs. Jones and Goodrich approved Mr. Downey's bond. Rev. Proctor and Eli Collins were retained as a committee to hold Mr. Downey's bond.

PAY FOR INSTITUTE WORK

The School Teachers of Indiana are to Receive Pay Indirectly.

F. A. Cotton, superintendent of public instruction, has decided a point in which all school teachers are interested. In a letter addressed to an Allen county trustee, Superintendent Cotton says: "Teachers are to be paid for attending county institutes by adding two per cent. to the average grade of scholarship and success. Inasmuch as this two per cent. increases the grade and the teachers receive their pay upon their grades, they are thus paid for attending said county institutes. They are no longer entitled to a per diem for attending such institutes." This is clear and explicit.

GLENWOOD WILL BE INCORPORATED

Citizens are Very Enthusiastic in Matter Already and Arranging to Select Officials.

It is now a certainty that the little town of Glenwood, east of us, will be incorporated, as it was decided on Tuesday by a vote of the citizens, resulting in a majority of nine favoring it.

An election was held and from all reports it was an enthusiastic one and interestingly contested. After the polls closed and all votes counted it was found that 43 favored the incorporation and 34 against it, giving a majority of 9 votes. An election will now be held about the first of July to select a town board, a clerk, treasurer and marshal and as it has been told much interest is already being manifested for the coming event. The new town will contain 131.97 acres, and will have population of 249, 75 of whom are heads of families and 81 are voters.

PREPARING FOR MEMORIAL DAY

Committees Appointed at a Meeting of the G. A. R.
Wednesday.

At the meeting of the G. A. R. held at the court house Wednesday afternoon for the purpose of making the preliminary arrangements for Memorial Day exercises on May 30th, the following committees were appointed: Committee on arrangements—Geo. H. Pantenney, chairman, Jabez Smith, W. T. Jackson and Edward Young. Finance committee—George Conrad, Jabez Smith, Ab. Denning and Pon Riggs.

The school children and the public in general are invited to participate in the exercises.

The program has not yet been arranged and another meeting will be held soon complete the arrangements. The speaking, however, will be held in the court house assembly room at 2 p. m. and Rev. D. R. VanBuskirk, of Greensburg, will be the orator. The parade to East Hill cemetery will start at 10 a. m. All those who wish to give flowers for the purpose of decorating the graves are requested to have them at the sheriff's office in the court house by 9:30 o'clock.

All the old soldiers are requested to meet at the sheriff's office at 10 o'clock on the morning of Sunday, May 28th, for the purpose of marching to St. Paul's M. E. church, where the memorial sermon will be preached by Rev. V. W. Tevis.

EAGLES ARE ORGANIZED

Jesse Harlow Elected Worthy
President of the Local Aerie.

Fine Banquet Was Served to About Two Hundred Guests—
The Officers.

Are you an Eagle? That is the all absorbing question on the streets since the institution of the local Aerie last night at the Woodmen's hall.

The institution last evening was a big event among the Eagle lodges in this part of the State. About one hundred and fifty visitors from Greensburg, Shelbyville, Indianapolis, Anderson, Richmond, Muncie and Connersville were present.

There were few Eagles from Shelbyville in attendance. In regard to this the Shelbyville Jeffersonian says: "The effort of the local aerie of Eagles to attend in a body the institution of the new lodge at Rushville last night was a failure. Many would have gone had they been notified in time to arrange their affairs. Those in charge of the matter on the other end were negligent. The invitation to the Shelbyville Eagles was not received until yesterday. Up to that time they had received no official notification. Several of them then got to work in an endeavor to get a sufficient number in order to procure excursion rates, but it was too late and the project was abandoned. Not a few went over as individuals, however."

The Greensburg team which did the work arrived at 5:30 p. m. and was met at the Big Four depot by the local candidates and the Arlington band. After the parade the Eagles marched to the Ypsilanti hall, where a sumptuous banquet was served by Mrs. Cornelia Lyons and a capable corps of assistants. The menu consisted chiefly of beef, boiled ham, baked beans, salad, fruit, coffee, pickles, ice cream and cake, and in fact, everything which goes to make a first-class banquet. Two tables extending almost the full length of the hall were literally loaded down with good things and the way the Eagles ate was indeed a sight to behold.

Deputy State organizer Peoples delivered an address touching on the growth of the order and the history of the lodge. His speech was an eloquent one and brought forth considerable applause.

City Clerk Lakin, in behalf of Mayor Hall, who was to have presided, but who was unable to be present on account of the illness of his father, read a letter from the Mayor, which expressed His Honor's regret at not being able to be present, but heartily welcoming the Eagles to the city. Throughout the banquet, Miss Hyattia Ochiltree furnished sweet music on the piano.

At the conclusion of the banquet the Eagles repaired to the Woodmen's hall, where the degree work was done by the Greensburg team. The Eagles have rented the Woodmen's hall for a year. The following officers were elected and installed between 4:00 and 5:30 o'clock: Past Worthy President, Will Smith; Worthy President, Jesse Harlow; Worthy Vice-President, Will O'Neil; Chaplain, Thomas J. Cauley; Worthy Conductor, W. R. Martin; Secretary, Lee Pyle; Inside Guard, Joe Webber; Outside guard, Ed. Smith; Treasurer, Michael Scanlan; Physician, Dr. W. C. Smith; Trustees, F. E. Early, Ed. Schrichte, E. C. Cummins.

The Carthage canning factory will be sold at sheriff's sale on next Saturday to satisfy the mortgages and judgments against Obediah F. Bowman, the owner, which amounts to $15,434.71 besides the costs.

W. W. Pfriener, of Kentland, Ind., "The Kankakee Poet," and an intimate friend of George Ade, the humorist and playwright, is in the city in the interest of the Home Insurance company of New York.

GRAVE PHONE

The Columbus Spiritualist Don't Want to Go to the Cemetery.

A Columbus telephone company has received a request from a woman to furnish and set a telephone at the head of a grave in one of the cemeteries there.

The woman who wants the instrument installed is a strong believer in Spiritualism, and holds frequent conversations with a departed relative. As she cannot talk with the dead unless she is at the grave, she conceived this plan which would relieve her of the necessity of making trips to the cemetery.

THE HANDLING OF LARGE FUNDS

Was the Undoing of Town
Clerk Petro of Cambridge City.

The Usual Experience Among Men—A Pathetic Story That Should be a Lesson.

In its account of the defaulting town clerk and treasurer, Daniel E. Petro, the Cambridge City Tribune says of him: Mr. Petro came here from Lewisville with his parents when a small boy. He was a hustler in his youth; whether as a student in school or a groceryman's delivery clerk, he was the same industrious character. By such means as this he became a general favorite and when nine years ago he was taken from a clerkship in Frank Frohnafel's grocery and elected clerk of the town, the people felt that they had confided their trust in a worthy young man.

In this new relation he proved equally agreeable. He was capable and courteous and such was his popularity that he was re-elected several times without opposition. He served as clerk from 1896 to 1899 when the duties of treasurer were reposed in him. His succession to the treasurership proved his undoing. In his custody was a large amount of money, and since it is not always paid out as soon as collected, it was his property in trust for weeks at a time. He began the use of this fund in a private way, probably as early as 1902, but that is not fully verified, and it will be difficult to connect his bondsmen with any shortage during that period. The retiring board of May 1902, checked up and proved his accounts and found them correct. They also visited the bank and found the money on deposit.

From May, 1902, to the same date in 1904, appears to have been his unworthy harvest. When the present board came into service they did not approve of the financial report of the preceding board and issued a supplemental statement showing an indebtedness of about $4000 more than had been reported.

As the time for the annual settlement in May drew close it was apparent to Mr. Petro's friends that he was drinking and had become reckless, but the thought that he was in trouble from using funds that he was not able to replace, was remote as any thought could be. When he failed to meet the finance committee Tuesday, Marshal Ulerich went to his home and made inquiry. His wife said that he had gone away and would not probably return. At least he would not reveal his intended location until after he found it to his liking and then he would send for her and his little daughter. Further than that nothing is known.

It is certainly little known, says a German exchange, that there exists a fine forest of cedar trees in the fatherland. This "exclusive" forest is the property of Baron von Faber, and is in the neighborhood of Nuremberg, in Bavaria. As the forest consists, with-out exception, of cedar trees, it may be the only one of its kind in the world as even in tropical countries the cedar tree occurs but sporadically. Baron von Faber is the famous pencil manufacturer.

RILEY WILHELM CUT ON NOSE

Supposed Attempt at Murder Fails to be Sustained.

Man found Laying in a Pool of Blood Proves to Have Fallen and Cut Himself.

When R. W. Cox stepped out an out-building at his home on Main street this morning he was confronted by a pool of blood. He found another pool of blood in the barn, and more blood on a pile of lumber nearby. The matter was reported and shortly afterward "Snitch" Bennett found Riley Wilhelm lying on the floor of an out-building in the rear of Sharer and Whitlock's bicycle shop just across the street. He was in an exhausted condition and was bleeding from a bad cut across the nose and another across the left hand. Wilhelm was taken to his home on East Third street across from the power house, where Dr. Coleman dressed his wounds. The injured man was unable to tell how he came to be in the outbuilding. He admitted, however, that he had been drunk, but he did not remember of being in a saloon after 6 p. m. Wednesday.

To a Republican reporter this morning he stated that he left August Roth's saloon at 6 o'clock last evening in a badly intoxicated condition, going to his home.

Wilhelm, it is said, has a habit for raising a rumpus whenever he gets intoxicated and goes home. It seems that he attempted to "smash things up" and in going through a door fell and jammed his head through the glass. The broken glass and blood on the floor near the door, the police think, proves this. Wilhelm thinks he fell, but he does not know how, when, or where. He says he was too drunk to know or care. After his fall he left the house and started along the C. H. & D. to go to the home of his parents. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Wilhelm on the Indianapolis pike. He was traced along the track and it could easily be seen that he had fallen down several times. He became sleepy, or weak from loss of blood and stopped in the Cox barn to sober up. From there he went to the wood pile and out building. In some manner, he does not know how, he managed to get to the outbuilding in the rear of the bicycle store. He spent the entire night in these places and the only wonder, judging from the amount of blood scattered around, is that he did not bleed to death.

Some people are inclined to believe that the man was cut by another person, but the police do not think so. Wilhelm had had no trouble with anyone, as far as can be learned and had only two dollars on his person. This he spent for whiskey, with the exception of 10 cents. He is up and about today, but he is very weak from loss of blood.

HORSE FALLS INTO A WELL

A valuable sorrel horse, seven years old, and belonging to Mrs. Cordelia Green, widow of the late Dr. Lot Green, fell into an abandoned well in the rear of Mrs. Green's Perkins street home about 9:30 this morning and was taken from its position only after the hardest kind of work on the part of a number of men of that neighborhood.

The animal had been turned into the back yard to graze and it is supposed that while the animal's hind feet were resting on the decayed stone slab covering the well, the stone gave way and the beast was lowered into the hole, hind feet first. The well is only about six feet deep and is dry. It was necessary to cut around the well and dig the horse out. The beast was severely bruised and cut in its efforts to get out of the well.

CONCRETE FENCE POSTS

A New Idea That Seems Sensible
Posts Can be Made at 17 Cents Each.

A New Castle special says: Concrete fence posts, for use in wire fencing, are being experimented with by a number of Henry county farmers. Thomas E. Lines, on Route 5 out of this city, has manufactured a concrete post at a cost of 17 cents, which is seven feet long, five inches square at the butt and three inches at the top, tapering. Another farmer in the east part of the county has eighty rods of wire fencing on cement posts that is very satisfactory and ornamental.

DENIES THE RUMOR OF MISSING MONEY

M. J. O'Connell Says Rumor of $1,400 Shortage in Oil Co.
Funds is Untrue.

M. J. O'Connell, promoter of the oil company operating at Buena Vista while in the city last evening attending the Eagles' banquet, denied that he knows of any such unaccounted for funds as were mentioned yesterday. He said there was a meeting of the company's officers Tuesday, when reports were made by all officers, except Mr. Wm. Emsweller, who is the company's treasurer.

Mr. O'Connell admitted that there was friction and differences in the management of the company, due, he said, to jealousy. He charged that the trouble was but an effort to "kick him out" since there is some probability of oil being obtained.

Mr. O'Connell claims he it is who first began the work and spent the better part of the year managing its affairs, besides investing $750 of his own money in the equipment, and called a friend as a witness to the latter statement. The other side is claiming that Mr. O'Connell put in no money, but retained 25 per cent. of the money received for stock, as commission.

Mr. O'Connell says that the mention of unaccounted funds might be a reflection on him, though really his name was not mentioned in the statement of yesterday which came originally from prominent men interested in the search for oil.

Mr. O'Connell stated that the differences in the company would soon be adjusted and drill started again. The drill is now down to a depth of 210 feet in Trenton rock. Mr. O'Connell says that the report concerning the operations of the Standard Oil company in Franklin county is true.

PROCLAMATION HAS BEEN ISSUED

Governor Hanly Calls People to Observe Memorial Day—Tribute to Soldier Dead.

Governor Hanly has issued a Memorial day proclamation and in it he pays tribute to the soldier dead. He says in part: "They are dead. They died for the rights of man. They died for free institutions. They died to preserve the solidity of the Nation. They died for liberty buttressed by law.

Concerning the observance of Memorial day he says: Let us desist every- one from our several occupations on this day. Let business cease. Let public offices be closed. Let us devote the day to sacred memories and consecrate it to holy purposes. Let it be a day of tribute to the dead and a day of honor to the living. Let music and song, oratory and flowers testify the sincerity of our gratitude and bespeak the constancy of our love. Let the flag, beneath whose folds they marched to death and glory, be seen at half-mast on every public building and above the portals of every private home."

I. O. O. F. HOME IS DEDICATED

The Rushville Lodge Was Well Up in the Parade at Greensburg.

Grand Master Farrer, of This City, Delivered an Address.

The Rushville delegation was given a prominent position in the parade at Greensburg yesterday, marching, in fact, just behind the Grand Lodge and the Indianapolis band.

Rushville people who were present say that Greensburg was in gala attire in order to fittingly welcome the Odd Fellows and daughters of Rebekah who were in attendance at the dedication of the new building at the Home of the order.

The Grand lodge, which adjourned its session in Indianapolis in order to be present on the occasion, arrived, accompanied by the ladies auxiliary and many visitors, on two special trains and participated in the exercises. The attendance was fully as large as that which filled the streets when the first building was dedicated five years ago.

At an early hour Odd Fellows from surrounding towns began pouring into the city. Few members of the order in the county stayed away, while Rushville, Columbus and other adjoining cities sent large delegations. Shelbyville was largely in evidence.

In the afternoon the parade occurred. Forming in the center of the city the line of march was taken up to the Home, situated about a mile eastward. The Grand lodge officials and Daughters of Rebekah occupied carriages while the lodges, to the strains of inspiring music took up the line of march.

The exercises at the Home consisted of an address by Grand Master Edwin Farrer, of this city, who was master of ceremonies, and the dedicatory address was delivered by Past Grand Sire Alfred Pinkerton, of Massachusetts. Prof. E. G. Hogate read the history of the first building and the manner in which it was founded, and Mrs. Rose Farr Talbott, of Orleans, also made an address.

Local Odd Fellows say that the dedication was one of the largest affairs ever given in Greensburg. They report an excellent time. The St. Paul band accompanied the local lodge.

DECISION ON SUNDAY BALL

Anderson Judge Holds That Admission to the Grandstand
Can be Charged.

According to a ruling of Judge Horne, in police court at Anderson, there is no violation of the Sunday baseball law when no restriction or means are used to prevent entrance at the gate and admission is charged only at the grandstand. On that construction of the law, he acquitted Ephraim Flahzin, manager, and John Ryan, pitcher, of the Anderson club, who were arrested last Sunday afternoon on a charge of playing baseball on Sunday for a fee.

"No restriction nor means were used to keep any one from the game," said he. "It seems there was a charge of 15 cents for seats in the grandstand. No one, however, was compelled to enter the grandstand, and paying for the privilege was entirely optional on the part of spectators."

ACTION IS PENDING PROSPEROUS ORDER

Both Naval and Military Developments Expected In Far East.

AN OMINOUS SILENCE

Cessation of Dispatches From the Principals in the Great War Tragedy is Portentous.

Russia is Looking for Action on the Part of Both Arms of Her Force.

St. Petersburg, May 18.—With a suspicious stoppage of dispatches from Manchuria and a strong possibility that Vice Admiral Rojestvensky has cut his last communications with home and set forth on the final stage of his journey to his goal, either Togo or Vladivostok, keen interest is manifested in naval and military circles here in the two-fold field of war. Though the admiralty, which has been completely silent since the advent of Rojestvensky in the Chinese sea, publishes no dispatches, the conviction is growing that the united squadrons, as indicated by press dispatches on May 15, departed from the Annam coast immediately after their juncture, and naval officials are anxiously expecting news of the first skirmishes between scouts of the hostile fleets.

Neither the admiralty nor individual officers have any information regarding the rumored request of Vice Admiral Rojestvensky to be relieved, and all who were questioned regarding the report expressed doubts of its accuracy. It was pointed out that it would have been entirely impracticable for the fleet to delay in the China sea until the arrival of Vice Admiral Birleff, and it was declared that Rojestvensky will keep his flag flying as long as he is not utterly incapacitated for command, which then would naturally devolve on Vice Admiral Voelkersam, who is known as an officer with a Teutonic thoroughness and attention to the fine details of his profession. He is also a notable strategist and theoretician. It was announced that Vice Admiral Bireff will be sent to Vladivostok, which possibly accounts for the origin of the rumor of Rojestvensky's request to be relieved of his command.

On the military side the indications are that events are rapidly shaping for the preliminary stage of another great battle. The Russian army has been refitted and is ready for action, and it is asserted that General Linevitch is not the man to waste days in inaction.

A further mobilization of cavalry in one or two districts was ordered today, but no large draft is required, as reinforcements for the cavalry arm are at hand in the recently embodied Cosacks, whose departure for Manchuria was postponed in anticipation of May Day troubles, the most of whom can now resume the trip eastward. A small but important detachment will leave St. Petersburg today to join General Linevitch's army.

ALL IS QUIET

Affairs in Santo Domingo Are Once More Serene.

Washington, May 18.—Dr. Jacob H. Hollander of Baltimore, who was sent to Santo Domingo by President Roosevelt as a special commissioner to make an investigation of the fiscal affairs of that government, has just had an extended interview with President Roosevelt. He told the president he had found perfect acquiescence on the part of both the officials of the present government and of the people of Santo Domingo in the arrangement which had been entered into between the two governments. The revolution, so-called, had not in his opinion amounted to much, and just now there was not even a suggestion of internal trouble. So far as his observation went, Dr. Hollander could see no reason why the present status should not continue uninterruptedly until a new and more definite arrangement could be effected. He is to return to Santo Domingo in September to complete his inquiries, and will then make an elaborate report upon Dominican finances and claims which the president will submit to the senate for its guidance in acting upon the pending treaty.

For two weeks he will be on probation, and if he runs the city according to their idea he will receive a salary of $500 a year. All the councilmen are Democrats and so is the mayor, who may resign.

FARMERS AGAINST IT

Covington, Ind., May 18.—The election held here to vote a subsidy of 1½ per cent tax in Troy township for the construction of the proposed interurban street railroad of the Fountain Warren Traction company, from this city via Stone Bluff, Newtown and Odell to Lafayette, failed to carry by 316 against and 247 votes for the appropriation. The farmers were mostly against the appropriation and worked to effect, while the citizens and the Covington Commercial club worked for the appropriation. The appropriation would have amounted to about $35,000.

RESULT INTERESTING

Politicians Studying the Vote in the First With Interest.

Indianapolis, May 18.—The defeat of Major G. V. Menzies of Mt. Vernon for congress in the special election in the First district was not surprising to politicians, as the district has been going Republican for ten years. The advantage was with the Republicans from the start, as they controlled the organization, and the effect of the landslide last November has not entirely worn off. The district has become solidly Republican, but Major Menzies made an excellent race. The result is interesting to the politicians, who take every result as a basis for future estimates. The result Tuesday is chiefly interesting on that account. It shows that there was either a big falling off in the Republican vote or that the vote last fall was abnormal, as the Democrats claimed. It is true that less than 75 per cent of the vote was cast, yet at the same time there is probably as much reason to expect that Major Menzies would have held his own among them as he did with the portion that was placed in the ballot-boxes. If his showing was not the result of personal popularity, then the two parties are getting back to the old footing when the state and district were not a cinch for either party.

The fight for cheaper fuel and illuminating gas here is becoming more interesting and may be made one of the paramount features of the municipal campaign. The board of works has given notice that the city will bid for the plant of the Consumers' Gas Trust company, which a clique of prominent local capitalists is arranging to dismantle and make a big lot of money or sell it to the Indianapolis Gas company. The latter has an exclusive field in the artificial gas business. There has been a public agitation in favor of cheaper gas, many believing it could be furnished at least a third lower than the present rate. The city proposes to exercise its right to take an option on the Consumers' property and to advertise a franchise to let. If a good company is organized to take the franchise the city will to dispose of the Consumers' property to it. At least this is understood to be the plan. The fight for the Consumers' property is bringing into action many of the brainiest men in the city, and there is no telling how it will end.

The state board of education which is in session here has prepared an interesting circular to be sent to city and town superintendents and school trustees, advising that the boards be executive in their functions, the superintendents advisory, and that superintendents be given authority to employ teachers. But the most interesting feature is the portion advising against exclusive employment of home talent teachers. "The custom is a bad one," the statement continues, "and this is particularly true when the teachers employed have no training other than that obtained in the home school. With such a system of 'in-breeding' it does not take long for the stock of ideas to run out." The board met today with the public library commission at which matters in which they are jointly interested were considered.

Ex-Mayor C. A. Bookwalter opened headquarters today from which to conduct his canvass for renomination. He is wading right in with customary vigor. The Stalnaker men are apparently very confident, but their candidate does not seem to be gaining much ground. He has a majority of the party leaders on his side, but in a direct primary the average voter counts about as much as the average leader. Bookwalter's chances are very good in spite of the opposition of the machine.

George A. H. Shideler of Marion, who is talked of as a probable candidate for congress in the Eleventh district and also for the chairmanship of the Republican state committee, was here today. He said, however, that he came on private business. He met a number of Republican leaders, but it is said that no reference was made to his plans. He had no announcement to make as to whether or not he will be a candidate for the chairmanship.

A Disgusted Lawyer.

New York, May 18.—Abraham Levy, who defended Nan Patterson during her three trials, announces that he has withdrawn from the case finally and absolutely. Mr. Levy said he understood that Miss Patterson intended to accept an offer from a theatrical manager and added that he strongly disapproved of such action. "I put in nearly a year of arduous and patient work," he said, "and after I had accomplished the purpose of my retainer and secured my client's discharge from custody, my hands are cleared. I am through with the Nan Patterson case. That cannot be put too plainly."

An Unexpected Raid.

Chicago, May 18.—In a raid made upon the "Belmont Corresponding Club," an alleged matrimonial agency at 12-14 State street, detectives arrested three persons and seized several thousand letters and photographs. The prisoners gave the names of Oscar Wells, "Doc" Moses and M. Felcher. They were charged with disorderly conduct and were released under bonds. The police say the club has done a large business. The prisoners would not discuss their arrest.

NEARING THE END

Chicago Strike Finish Is Now But a Matter of Hours.

A LOGICAL CONCLUSION

Movement That Was Not Supported By Public Opinion Is Tottering to Its Fall.

Strikers Are Now Anxious to Make Best Terms Possible With Employers.

Chicago, May 18.—It is highly probable that the next twenty-four hours will see the end of the teamster strike in Chicago. Although none of the labor leaders will so acknowledge, it is generally understood that the program for calling off the strike has already been arranged.

A meeting is in progress today between the teamsters' joint council and a committee representing the Team Owners' association. It will be made plain to the teamsters that the business interests of the team owners render it imperative that the boycotts be lifted. It will then be agreed by the team owners and the teamsters' joint council that the demand of the team owners to make deliveries to boycotted houses with union drivers be submitted to arbitration. This arbitration is to concern only the Team Owners' association and the teamsters, the members of the employers' association being in no manner interested in it in an official sense. Pending the decision of this board of arbitration, the strike is to be called off and such members of the teamsters' union as are able to obtain their old situations will return to work. This will end the strike entirely, with the exception of the strike against Montgomery Ward & Co., and as it is not expected that aggressive measures will be adopted by either side, the trouble in this direction will be allowed to die out gradually.

President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor is very active in all efforts toward settling the strike. He conferred with members of the Team Owners' association, held conferences with the teamsters and had an extended talk with Mayor Dunne. He refused to state the result of his work, but expressed himself as being confident that the strike would be adjusted within a short time. The manner of the settlement he declined to discuss, but said he was in favor of almost any plan that would bring about an honorable adjustment.

Little if any opposition is being made by the strikers and their friends to the making of deliveries by non-union drivers. In fact the streets have almost assumed their normal condition and there is little to indicate that a strike of such large proportions is in progress.

YOUNG ANARCHISTS
Get a Reminder That There Is Such a Thing as Law.

Chicago, May 18.—The authorities have taken hold of the strike fever in the public schools with a firm hand. Judge Mack of the juvenile court sentenced one boy to be imprisoned at the John Worthy school, which is a branch of the house of correction, and two at the parental school, while a fourth was released on probation. The boys arraigned were Harry Kerwin, thirteen years old, a ring leader in the disturbances at the Hendricks school; Thomas Halloran, thirteen years of age; Harry Strauss, fourteen years of age; and John Pierce, fifteen years old. Halloran and Strauss were sent to the parental school, Pierce was released, but is required to report at stated intervals to Truant Officer Bradburn.

Miss Florence Colt, principal of the Hendricks school, and W. L. Bodine, superintendent of compulsory education, prosecuted the prisoners. Miss Colt said that she had seen all four boys throw coal and stones at the non-union teamsters. The boys admitted their guilt.

"I threw coal at them, all right," said young Kerwin. The boy's father, who was in court, interrupted, saying: "Tell the judge why you threw at them."

"Because they were scabs," asserted the prisoner.

The smile of the elder Kerwin at his son's reply was cut short by Superintendent Bodine, who marched up to Kerwin and demanded: "Are you in any way responsible for this boy's conduct? Have you put these ideas into his head? If you have I will swear out a warrant for you at once."

Kerwin denied having suggested the assault upon the non-union men or having instigated in any way the strike at the school.

Judge Mack passed sentence at once upon young Kerwin and the lad's three companions joined him in an outburst of crying and appealed vehemently for mercy. Their parents also wept and pleaded with the judge for another chance for the prisoners. The judge, however, remained fixed in his determination. He replied to the parents: "These school strikes must stop. They have got to stop, and they will stop right away. It is time these boys learned there is such a thing as law and that those who break laws must suffer. The sentences will stand."

"This is only the beginning," said Superintendent Bodine. "I am going to have the ring-leaders in strikes in other schools brought in and propose to make school strikes in Chicago a thing of the past. With the prosecution of the boys will go prosecution of parents who actively sympathize with them and give countenance to disturbances at school."

Six warrants have been sworn out for the parents of young strikers in the Harrison school district, and they will be arraigned in court at once.

JONES NO PIRATE

Watterson Denies England's Defamation of Naval Hero.

Paris, May 18.—At the farewell banquet to Ambassador Porter last night Henry Watterson made a characteristic speech which, after a glowing tribute to General Porter, took up the achievements of Paul Jones. His closing words hurling back the taunt of the British press that Jones was a pirate, aroused great enthusiasm:

"It was the hands of Paul Jones," said Mr. Watterson, "which first loosened the flag which we adore and which carried this flag defiant and triumphant into English waters; into the Irish sea and into the North sea, yea into St. George's channel; not merely bearding the lion in his den, but coming away with those same hands stuffed with indisputable trophies, with actual and visible fragments of his mane and tail. I do not wonder they called him a pirate; but if he was a pirate, Washington was a highwayman and Franklin a lobster!"

DUAL PERSONALITY
This Plea Is Presented by Defendant in Murder Case.

Somerville, N. J., May 18.—A remarkable psychological problem has been presented for the study of the many alienists in the court in connection with the trial of George Wood for the murder of George Williams, the grocer of Watchung. Wood, who, according to his counsel, is the victim of a dual personality, in one phase of which he is under the influence of purely imaginary persons, took the stand in his own defense.

Throughout the long examination of his counsel and the rigorous cross-questioning of the prosecutor, Wood preserved a perfectly calm demeanor and replied to all questions promptly and straightforwardly and in a fashion logically consistent with his declared belief that he is possessed of "familiar" whose mandates he is irresistibly compelled to obey and that of his actions when under their influence he retains no recollection on regaining his normal identity. Wood denied that he had ever known Williams or had ever seen him to his knowledge, and answering a direct question, swore positively that he did not kill him.

SEEING AMERICA.

Wonderful Scenic Trip Across the

Rocky Mountains to Oregon

Exposition.

In certain respects the excursions to the Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition, Portland, Oregon, via Pennsylvania Lines, beginning May 23d and continuing through the summer, offer advantages never before presented to Exposition visitors. The trip to the Oregon Exposition, in addition to the attractiveness of the extensive exhibits, includes the journey through the scenic wonderland of the Rocky Mountains and the Cascade Range, and what American has not looked forward from the days of his geography class in school to the time when those great sights should be seen in reality? The time was never so favorable as now. The trip may be made less expensively than ever. For only a slight difference in fare, tourists may extend their trip to San Francisco and Los Angeles. The return trip may be made over a different route, enabling travelers to view much more of the West. For full particulars, fares, dates of special excursions to Portland on account of Conventions, through time and passenger service apply to ticket agents of Pennsylvania Lines.

A letter from Captain J. H. Maunz and dated May 15th, states that he and his wife expected to leave Dallas, Texas, for Palestine, Texas, on the 16th, and after a short stay there would leave for Rushville. A fellow named Robert Lewis hired a livery rig at Shelbyville last week and drove to Adams, where he is alleged to have kidnapped a half witted seventeen year old girl named Edna Johnson. After driving all over the country, sleeping in the buggy some nights and going without food part of the time, Lewis abandoned the horse, buggy and girl at Franklin Monday and she returned to Shelbyville Tuesday. Police are looking for Lewis.

It is reported that the family living on William Franklin County Gordon's farm in Jackson township, have been missing young chickens all spring and could not tell where they went, until they discovered that the crawfish came up out of their holes and dragged them down. So the president of the Ananias club sent out a Studebaker wagon load of corn cobs and with the assistance of the neighbors, the holes were stopped, and the slaughter of chickens checked.

Cambridge City Tribune: The electric line along the National road has been productive of one great good, if nothing more. Nearly all the old farm houses have been reconstructed and many new houses built. The lawns are kept trimmed and the orchards and gardens made more attractive. The roadside, too, is kept clear of weeds and is carpeted with blue grass. These progressive improvements have been adopted by neighbors farther off the road until as far as the eye can reach on either side the same material advancement is manifest. There is a general revival among the rural population of the State that could well be emulated by many of the towns and cities.
